

Turning the Tide of HIV/AIDS in Africa
stephenlewisfoundation.org

January 24th 2019.

To Whom It May Concern,

We are happy to write this letter in support of Stride to Turn the Tide, a national grandmother-led walk in support of the Stephen Lewis Foundation's Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign.

organized by _____ will take place on _____ and will be covered under insurance organized by the Stephen Lewis Foundation.

Stride to Turn the Tide raises funds for African grassroots organizations working with grandmothers and the children in their care in partnership with the Stephen Lewis Foundation. The SLF collaborates with grassroots groups who support grandmothers' immediate needs such as: nutritious food, health care, transportation, home visits, adequate housing and bedding, school fees, uniforms and supplies for children orphaned by AIDS – and longer-term needs such as parenting and business skills, micro-credit grants, bereavement counseling, HIV awareness training, counseling and testing and grandmother support groups.

For more information about the Stephen Lewis Foundation or the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign, please visit www.stephenlewisfoundation.org or e-mail info@stephenlewisfoundation.org. Alternatively, should you have any further questions about the Stride to Turn the Tide initiative, do not hesitate to contact me at stride@stephenlewisfoundation.org or 1-888-203-9990 ext. 234.

We look forward to working with the _____ support their efforts.

, and we hope you will also

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Winnie Byanjeru". The signature is stylized and cursive.

Winnie Byanjeru
Stride Coordinator
Stephen Lewis Foundation